Another room will be opened in the Bonneville school this morning to accommodate pupils of the sixth and seventh grades who live in North Sait Lake, and have been compelled heretofore to walk two miles to the Washington school,

The funeral of the late Nelson Kesler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kesler, whi take place at the Twenty-second ward meeting bouse at 2 p. m. today. The remains may be viewed at the residence, 450 North Fifth West 5/rect, from 12.30 until 1:30 p. m. Friends respectfully invited.

The Salt Lake Medical society was en-tertained and instructed last evening by Dr. Jennison, who read a paper on "Neu-risthenia," which is the technical term for nerve tar. Following the reading of the paper came a general discussion of points suggested by the attentive medicos, The state land board yesterday heard the evicence in the contest case of Frank. L. Chuse vs. E. E. Rich, Ephraim Garn and Charles E. France, involving title from the state to a 160-acre tract of salt and gas land in Davis county. At least another day will be required to close the case.

The Canyon Road football team played the Lowell school team to a standstill yesterday afternoon. The scene of the battle was on the Eighteenth ward grounds. Neither side scored, but the Canyon team had decidedly the better of it, though its members had nor played together before. The Lowells claim the school championship of the state.

Yesterday about $100.00 cume in and Treasurer Lynch and his expert staff had no time to think of anything but the duty of the hour. Yesterday's tax collections came from about $100.00 taxpayers, many of whom sent their tributes through the mail.

Advices from Pure.

Advices from Butte, received yesterday, are to the effect that Mrs. Bailey Youngston, wife of a former well known sporting man of this city, committed suicide a few days ago, by taking morphine. Mrs. Youngston was related here and has several friends and relatives who will be ghocked to learn of her sudden ending. She left one child, a girl, with her husband, to mourn her sudden ending.

The Sait Lake Educational club's meeting last evening in the teachers resistent room at the joint building was largely attacked. The proceedings were highly appreciated by the educators present. By request Miss Carrie L. Paine of the High school faculity read a paper entitled "The Place of Literature in a Symmetrical Bequation." Prof. Marshall of the university god Mrs. William igleheart opened the discussion, which afterward become general. All the educators found much in the meeting to profit by and to anyon. in the meeting to profit by and to appreciate.

the Democratic county committee down in Sanpete, came to the city yesterday, and is a guest at the Knutsford. Soren was asked yesterday afternoon what caused the defeat of Democracy in his county, and replied: "According to the best estimates, if we can get an early rain next spring, we will have an abundant wheat crop. All signs point to an early sowing, and if the moisture falls along soon after the seed is planted, why, then we will come to the front with a bountiful supply of golden grain along about harvest time."

"But how about the elections; what of them?"

"Sheep are doing finely," responded

of them?"

"Sheep are doing finely," responded Mr. Christensen. "The range is good, and those which have been heading westward for some weeks have found the late grasses in good condition. I don't know that sheep were ever finer than they are this fall, and, despite the fact that Mark Hanna declares the Dingley tariff bill a failure. I believe with a mild and moderate winter the sheepmen will have a first-class time of it next summer."

"Do you think that the Democrats felt the interest in the ticket this year they did last?"

"I am satisfied that with the building of a sugar factory in the Sameete valley the farmers there could make a great deal of money off the cultivation of beets." answered Mr. Christensen. "The soil is adapted to raising beets, and the agriculturalists would gladly welcome the chance to cultivate some portions of their land for this purpose. I think that with proper inducements—what in blazes do you want to ask a man about election for; did you read the returns?" and here Soren arted as if he would like to change the subject. if he would like to change the subject, had happened to place an "L" between my two names I would have been in a nice fix, wouldn't 1? FIGHTING CANNON.

McKinley Republicans Do Not Like Him.

Many McKinley Republicans do not take kindly to the matter of having Frank J. Cannon re-elected to the sen-ate, as announced would be attempted, by securing Republican votes, a few days ago. The McKinley leaders in the north, especially around Weber county, do not take to this kindly at all. Lind-say Rogers was down yesterday and when the subject was mentioned to when the subject was mentioned to him, he frowned one of those mighty frowns, and declared as for himself he did not want to see any such thing done. It is understood that Lindsay represents the real sentiment of exenator Brown.

Senator Brown was joking, but the Cannon adherents caught up the plan and proceeded to perfect it, and now there is a nice little tangle of affairs.

So earnest are Weber county fellows in their fight against Cannon that they declare none of the supporters of the fusion ticket in Weber should be given places in the legislature. It is known that P. J. Crowley, who did yeoman service in the fusion fight, is a candidate for sergeant-at-arms of the senate. Crowley asserts that he is going to land the place. Then there are one or two more up there who want clerks ships, and they are equally confident. The opposition to Cannon is united in asserting that the Democrats will be a foolish to allow one of them to get a senate. All kinds of coal. All sinds of coal. foolish to allow one of them to get a place. "They were against the ticket," they say, "and you fellows would be depriving some good Democrats of a place if you allowed them to capture place if you allowed them to capture one of them."

This view seems to take with some of the Democratic members of the legislature here, and may have weight when the session begins. Many claim the fusionists ought not to come in the caucus, because they were not elected as Democrats, and that the places should be to Democrats. aould go to Democrats and Democrats

Republican state headquarters have not yet closed, and will not for a month yet. Master of Itinerary Bachman is still engaged in mapping out routes for speakers, according to the statements of some of the boys who percolate around there occasionally. It is said that when he came down yesterday he found a note some wag had left on his desk, asking that three good men be sent into Sanpete, and at once began consulting them. Then he happened to think. Mr. Walton sits around his office considerably, and finds great satisfaction in gazing at a victure of Hanna and then ruminating over the statement.
